Celebration of Judaism in Freemasonry

On the 21st November 2021, a unique celebration of Judaism in Freemasonry will be held at Heaton Park Hebrew Congregation, 84 Middleton Road, Manchester, M8 4JX.

The Deputy Provincial Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Superintendent look forward to welcoming you to this special occasion and a cordial invitation is extended to all East Lancashire Freemasons and their wives and partners.

It is anticipated that there will be considerable interest in attending and it is essential that you reserve your place as soon as possible. Entry will be by ticket only and these can only be obtained by clicking on the following link:

pglevents.co.uk

Please remember to bring the confirmation email with you receive as proof as this will act as your ticket to be admitted. This is important due to the seating and security requirements.

Attendees must be seated by 1.45pm and refreshments will be available following the celebration.

The following additional guidance has also been provided:

1. The wearing of face masks is optional .
2. Men and women will be able be seated together.
3. There will be reserved seating for dignitaries and the participants in the celebration.
4. The Provincial DCs team will be at the gate for parking and checking attendees are booked in.
5. The Provincial DCs team will also be inside to guide people to seats and hand out the order of service.
6. An envelope for a collection which will also be provided and the beneficiaries of this will be announced at the service.
7. Brethren and Companions are required to cover their heads. We will endeavour to have enough head coverings but you are strongly urged to bring your own. In this circumstance and because of the seating arrangements, ladies may choose to wear a hat.

We look forward to seeing you then.
